Mock Exams:

Dear parent/guardian,

Last May when reviewing school fees, I communicated that €50 would cover the cost of correcting Junior Cycle and Leaving Certificate Mock papers.

Unfortunately, I made an error as this will not cover the total cost, and it could leave a shortfall of between five and eight thousand euro. Subject departments are using different parties for correction, and I will have to leave it to each individual teacher to collect appropriate fee for each subject.

For instance, there is a substantial difference between the cost of correcting higher Level subjects than ordinary level subjects.

I apologise for the inconvenience caused and I will refund all parents who have paid the €50 through our way to pay system.
